

GRAHAM THOMPSON ATTORNEYS TO PRESENT @ BBO AND BEO

Graham Thompson Managing Partner, Judy Whitehead. Photo credit: Donald Knowles

NASSAU, THE BAHAMAS – Graham Thompson attorneys are set to kick off the New Year with presentations at major New Providence business and economic conferences.

Graham Thompson Managing Partner Judy Whitehead will present at the 27th Bahamas Business Outlook (BBO). Under the theme “Creating a World-Class Bahamas”, the forum will take place on Thursday January 18th at the Baha Mar Convention Centre. The Prime Minister, Hon Dr. Hubert Minnis, will deliver the conference’s keynote address. The nearly three-decade old BBO forum is an established event in the business sector’s calendar.

A Graham Thompson Senior Partner and head of the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution Department, Robert Adams. Photo credit: Donald Knowles.

A Graham Thompson Senior Partner and head of the firm's Litigation and Dispute Resolution department, Robert Adams will present at the Royal Fidelity Bahamas Economic Outlook (BEO) conference. Under the theme "Global Integration or Disintegration? Surviving the Challenge", the BEO is scheduled for Tuesday January 30th, also at the Baha Mar Convention Centre. Adams will present with a local panel of experts. This 2018 staging of the BEO will be the event's 4th.